Role Description

As a summer camp tennis coach and counsellor you will play a full role in the day and night at camp, including supervising campers at meals times, coaching during the day and getting involved in the great evening activities, you will also sleep in the same accommodation building as the campers.

Of course, you'll have time to yourselves and will not be on duty all day and night. The management team will create a working schedule (available at the start of the week) detailing your working requirements and time off. You'll also have whole days and nights off to explore the surrounding area or go to the gym!

Tournament days (Thursday PM - Doubles) and Saturday (Singles All Day) provide opportunities to rota a majority of coaches off. In general coaches will work every second Sunday to help with player transfers and London trips.

In this role, you must have a good level of English and have experience of coaching groups of children.
